The Heavy FEELING in the room:
I have no idea what I want to do for a career

- You are not alone. There are many options and you are still learning about yourself.
- Now IS time to explore though. Here are some starting points:
 - My Blueprint <https://myblueprint.ca/>
 - Quizzes on canada.ca (<https://www.jobbank.gc.ca/career-planning/quizzes;jsessionid=E9B00234391736991045D85601498340.jobsearch76>)
 - Questioning a certain career? Ask people in your community to job shadow for a day!
 - Focus on your interests and strengths as your starting point...not $$$
 - Look at labour market outlook reports (ie., www.nbjobs.ca)

Post- Secondary Plans

- Step one: Go online! Look at schools/programs that interest you.
- Verify that you have the admission requirements (use caution – not all are the same!)
- Admission deadlines vary by school.
- NBCC Admission is first come, first served, so apply early
- Universities mostly look at grades – especially competitive programs, like nursing and engineering. Your grades need to be a priority.

*Remember that your admission average is calculated from the courses required for the program (admission requirements) not your overall average minutes to tour around and ask questions, gather information, etc).

There will be many college/university reps here that day.

Trying to decide between schools? Prepare some questions in advance!

Most schools have applications online

From website, create a student profile to complete a basic application (and upload additional files if necessary)

All schools charge an application fee (this varies from $40-$100) which can be paid online

The application is not considered complete until you send your official transcript IN JUNE!!

Ontario School Applications go through Ontario Universities Application Centre (OUAC)

How Do I Apply?

FHS Transcripts

Official document which shows Grade 10, 11 & 12 marks from FHS

Will show mid-term mark once report card comes out in November; final mark at end replaces it.

If you have marks from somewhere else, you must also have those marks sent

Schools want transcripts that you have not handled (sent directly from FHS to post-secondary)

To request transcript you must email Kathie.Clark@nbed.nb.ca indicating where you want your transcript sent (with at least a week's notice)
